

A group of four trail runners are captured in motion on a rocky, mountainous trail. The lead runner is a man in a bright green shirt and black shorts, wearing sunglasses and a hydration pack. Behind him are a woman in a black long-sleeve shirt and shorts, a young boy in a black long-sleeve shirt and shorts, and another man in a black long-sleeve shirt and red shorts. The background shows a clear blue sky and a forest of evergreen trees on a hillside.
